

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

"Comparatives and superlatives"

1. Write the comparative and superlative form of the following adjectives.

Adjective	Comparative form	superlative form
 Smelly :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Anxious :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Gorgeous :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Angry :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Full :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Easy :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 Soft :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
 New :	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

2. Complete the sentences by using the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in parentheses.

	That's the <input type="text"/> (disgusting) meal I've ever had!
	Maths is the <input type="text"/> (difficult) subject of all.
	The plane is the <input type="text"/> (fast) means of transport.
	My car is <input type="text"/> (fast) than yours.
	She is the <input type="text"/> (pretty) in her class.
	Your christmas tree is <input type="text"/> (tall) than mine.
	I prefer <input type="text"/> (hot) temperatures. That's why I love summer.
	The whale is the <input type="text"/> (big) animal in the world.
	A cat is <input type="text"/> (thin) than a hippo.
	A turtle is <input type="text"/> (slow) than a rabbit.
	It is the book <input type="text"/> (interesting) of the three.