Tet is the main holiday for Vietnamese people. It is the most important celebration in the year which fall sometime between January 19th and February 20th. Tet marks the beginning of the spring and it is the first time for family members who live apart try to be together. The preparations and celebrations used to be spread over months but nowadays the holiday is much shorter. However, there is great excitement building up well before Tet. Streets are decorated with colored lights and red banners. Shops are full of goods. People are busy buying gifts, cleaning and decorating their houses and cooking traditional foods. On the first days of Tet, people try to be nice and polite to others. They visit their relatives or friends and exchange New Year's wishes. Children often receive the "lucky money" inside red envelopes. Many people go to the pagoda to pray for a happy new year for themselves and their family. Tet is really a time of fun and festivals throughout the country.
