A Misterios Suicide...

At 11:22 pm on January 7, 2007. Ms. Jane Webb called the Toronto Police to report a suicide. At 11:34 a police car (stop) in front of her house, and two policemen (get) out of the car. Ms. Webb (put) on a warm coat because it (be) cold and she (meet) them in front of the house. She (take) them to the house across the street.

Surprisingly, the door (not – be) closed. They entered and found a dead man in the study. There was a small hole above his right eye, and there was a gun on the floor next to his right hand.

The policemen looked around buy they (not – touch) anything. They then (leave) the room and (tell) Ms. Webb that she (be) an important witness. They asked her to go to her house and wait for them.

Inspector Greene and a team of experts (arrive) fifteen minutes later and the investigation (begin).

It was almost 2 am when Inspector Greene finally (come) to speak to Ms. Webb. They (sit) at the kitchen table and (drink) a cup of coffee, but they (not – be) hungry so they (not – eat) anything. Ms. Webb started to talk:

“I was in this kitchen when I (look) out the window. I (see) Mr. James – he turned on the light, walked to his desk, (take) his gun and shot himself in the head. Then I (run) to his house, but all the doors and windows were closed so I (break) a window with a stone on the first floor and climbed in.”

Ms. Webb continued: “I (go) upstairs to the study. I turned on the light and I (see) Mr. James on the floor. There was nothing I could do for him. He was dead. So I (leave) the house and called the police.”

After she finished talking, she (cry): “I’m sorry”, she explained, “Mr. James was also my boss. I work at his company as his accountant, and I know why he committed suicide... The company (go) bankrupt last week, and I feel responsible for this accident because I (give) him the bad news, just this morning.”

The Inspector looked at her but there was no sympathy in his eyes. He (say) in a very cold voice: “You are coming to the Police Station with me.”
