PART 4: READING COMPREHENSION

Questions 31 - 35: Read the following passage then fill in the blanks with NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS

Young People with a Heart

If you have no special plans for your break, why not give your time away?

Don't listen to people who say that teenagers today are selfish. It's not true, say many charities. Volunteering is on the rise in the United States. Millions of teenagers spend their school holidays helping others. And they do it for free. Here are some of their stories:

Nelly, 18

I'm going to help the Forest Service build new hiking trails in the mountains of Idaho. It's going to be terrific – I'll spend the whole summer living in a tent and breathing the clean mountain air. I'm going to be sleeping under the stars, getting a great workout, and doing something good at the same time!

Scott, 18

This summer, I'm going to volunteer with Habitat for Humanity. They build good, low-cost houses and sell them to needy families at no profit. They've built over 90,000 houses in 60 countries. They'll teach me what to do, so I'll be helping people and also learning new skills

Rod, 16

I'm going to teach kids who have reading troubles. I'll be working for a program called Reading For Life. Every day, I'm going to help kids select and read books that interest them. I want to be a teacher and I love children and reading, so this is going to be a great experience for me.

31. It is not _____ to say that young people today are selfish.
32. Millions of them spend _____ helping others for free.
33. Nelly is going to help building new hiking trails in the mountains of Idaho which is going to be _____.
34. Scott is going to spend his summer on working as a volunteer for _____.
35. Rod is going to work for a program called Reading For Life in which he is going to do with the children suffering troubles of _____.
