ROLE PLAY Shop at a Yard Sale

A PAIR WORK Imagine you are at a yard sale. Number the sentences (1 to 6) to make conversations. Then practice the conversations.

1. And how much are these earrings?
 1 Hello. Can I help you?
 It's twelve dollars.
 Yes, how much is this ring?
 They're twenty dollars.
 Thanks. I'll think about it.
2. Can I help you?
 Oh, that's pretty expensive.
 OK. I'll take it.
 Yes, how much is this MP3 player?
 Well, how about thirty dollars?
 It's forty dollars.

B CLASS ACTIVITY Plan a class yard sale. Form two groups. Make a list of things your group will sell, and give each item a price.

Now have the yard sale:

Group A: You are the sellers. Try to sell everything on your list to Group B. Then change roles and decide what to buy from Group B.

Group B: You are the buyers. Ask questions and decide what to buy. Then change roles and try to sell everything on your list to Group A.
