

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

"Simple past affirmative and negative"

1. Complete the story by using the past form of the verbs in parentheses. Pay attention to the negative sentences.

Students and teacher deliver baby

Haddy Saal-Keita was writing an exam in her English class. Suddenly, she (Feel) sick. She says, "I (raise) my hand and (tell) the teacher I (Not/Feel) well."

Teacher was worried

Jill MacLachlan is Haddy's teacher.

She (Be) worried.

Jill (Know) that Haddy (Be) pregnant.

Jill (Tell) the students to take care of Haddy. Then she

(Go) to get help. When Jill (return) to the class, Haddy (Say), "Jill, the baby is here."

A special delivery

Jill, a security guard, and the students (help) deliver

Haddy's baby. Then they (call) 9-1-1. Firefighters

(Take) Haddy and her daughter to the hospital. Haddy says, "It (Be) a very special delivery."

Students teased teacher

The students (Joke) with Jill. They (Say),

"Your exam (Be) so hard you (make) Haddy go into labour."

Taken from: www.bestofthereader.ca / joan@joanacosta.ca