Dear Kristina,

Several children sent us ideas for the cover of our new children's magazine. It was difficult to choose a winner so I chose two! They are attached. Some of the ideas looked very [1] professional (profession) with [2] _____ (beauty) artwork. However, we didn't choose them. Although they were very [3] _____ (attract), we were a bit [4] _____ (suspicion) that the children hadn't actually designed them themselves.

The two I've attached are very different to each other. The first is quite [5] _____ (humour) with a [6] _____ (wonder), and very [7] _____ (imagine) picture and a very funny title. I think you'll like it. The second is a [8] _____ (mystery) entry. It's a very [9] _____ (origin) design but we have no idea who sent it in. There's a name and phone number on it. We tried to phone but the person said that they hadn't entered our competition!

The competition has been a huge success. It has been a very [10] _____ (use) way to find out more about our readers. We also found a cheap and [11] _____ (effect) way to design our first cover, or two!

Let me know what you think of them.

Bradley
