	Noun	Verb	Adjective	Adverb
1- A young boy, Shepherd, is getting dressed.
2- A young boy, Shepherd, is getting dressed.
3- A young boy, Shepherd, is getting dressed.
4- He is putting on his tackies.
5- It is very noisy in his house.
6- It is very noisy in his house.
7- 'Mongi, give me back my yellow pen!'
8- 'Mongi, give me back my yellow pen!'
9- 'Mongi, give me back my yellow pen!'
10- Mr Motiki's dog is barking at someone coming up the road.
11- Mr Motiki's dog is barking at someone coming up the road.
12- Shepherd likes doing things slowly.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

13- Shepherd likes doing things slowly.
14- He sings a little, then he pulls on his T-shirt.
15- He sings a little, then he pulls on his T-shirt.
16- They are very old tackies.
17- When they were new, they belonged to Mongi.
18- When they were new, they belonged to Mongi.
19- But now they have holes in them, and they belong to Shepherd.
20- Look how she walks a little and then stops to lean on her stick for a while.
21- Look how she walks a little and then stops to lean on her stick for a while.
22- Instead he is wagging his tail.
23- Instead he is wagging his tail.
24- Gogo is old, but her face shines like new shoes.
25- Gogo is old, but her face shines like new shoes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS