So...that / Such...that

Join these sentences using the helping words below without changing their original meaning.

1. Singapore is a very clean city. She attracts many tourists.

    _____ so _____ that _____
    _____

2. My employer has a bad temper. All of us are afraid of him.

    _____ such _____ that _____
    _____

3. Andrew is very timid. He will not talk to anyone.

    _____ so _____ that _____
    _____

4. It is an interesting book. I cannot put it down.

    _____ such _____ that _____
    _____

5. The boys spoke very loudly. Everyone could hear them.

    _____ so _____ that _____
    _____

6. Mr. Cartson is a miser. He refuses to give a cent even to his parents.

    _____ such _____ that _____
    _____

7. The movie was very scary. Someone in the audience fainted.

    _____ so _____ that _____
    _____

8. Chess is an interesting game. We play it almost every night.

    _____such _____ that ____
    _____

9. The dress was too expensive. She decided not to buy it.

_____ so _____ that _____

_____

10. We had a very pleasant time at the beach. We wanted to go there again the following week.

_____ such _____ that _____