R7.2 Listen and fill in the gaps.

When my father, Bill, retired a year ago, he bought himself his first ever computer. At the time he had no idea how 1_____ a computer and didn't even know how 2_____ a document. He couldn't 3_____ very fast and he didn't have a clue how 4_____ online. So he started going to evening classes, and after a few lessons he was able to 5_____ emails and 6_____ for things on the Internet. He even managed 7_____ his own web page! His friends realised that he was good at 8_____ with computers and started asking him for help. He found it quite easy 9_____ their problems and decided to start teaching retired people basic computer skills. Now he's working harder than he used to before he retired!
