

GRAMMAR

COMPARATIVE OF EQUALITY, TOO & ENOUGH

1) COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE WORDS IN BRACKETS IN THE COMPARATIVE OF EQUALITY FORM. USE (NOT) AS... AS.

- 1 The dark chocolate has got 80% cocoa. The milk chocolate has only got 10% cocoa.
The milk chocolate is _____ the dark chocolate. (bitter)
- 2 All these shirts are made of the same material. The black ones are _____ the white ones. (soft)
- 3 Sammy's balcony has got a table and chairs, but Brian's is full of flowers.
Sammy's balcony is _____ Brian's balcony. (beautiful)
- 4 This chicken curry doesn't contain chilli pepper, so it's _____ the Vindaloo curry. (spicy)
- 5 Carol and Kate both use excellent conditioner. Carol's hair is _____ Kate's. (smooth)

2) COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE WORDS IN BRACKETS IN THE COMPARATIVE OF EQUALITY FORM. USE NOT AS... AS.

1. My car is newer than your car. Your car is _____ mine.
2. Sam is taller than his sister. Sam's sister is _____ he is.
3. Your notebook is cleaner than mine. My notebook is _____ yours.
4. Sandra is more intelligent than Peter. Peter is _____ Sandra.
5. This book is more expensive than a necklace. A necklace's _____ this book.
6. Gary is more skilful than I am. I'm _____ Gary.
7. That lorry is heavier than a train wagon. A train wagon is _____ that lorry.
8. Your work is better than Tim's work. Tim's work is _____ your work.
9. Sarah is a worse student than Carla. Carla is _____ Sarah.
10. John is more stubborn than Laura. Laura's _____ John.

1. Can you boil the potatoes a little longer? They are too soft / not soft enough.

3. I don't want this T-shirt. I've got sensitive skin and the material is too rough / not rough enough for me.

4. Let's go to the beach today. It's warm enough / too warm.

5. Can you add some black to this red paint? This colour's too dark / not dark enough.

1. The coffee was too hot to drink, so I left it for a minute to cool. (hot)

2. The room wasn't so I turned the heating on. (warm)

3. I didn't buy the jacket because it was . (big)

4. You needn't cool my milk. It's _____ to drink now. (warm)

5. I didn't buy the shoes because they weren't . (good-quality)

6. It was too heavy for her to carry, so I took it myself and put it on the shelf. (light)

7. I put on a scarf because it was . (cold)

8. This room isn't big enough for both of us. (big)