Infinitives or Gerunds?

1. Because Jordan devoted himself to (write) _____ novels, Lora accused him of (neglect) _____ the children.
2. Diana seems (get) _____ bored easily. Does she have difficulty in (concentrate) _____ on her studies?
3. At our next meeting, we should discuss (hire) _____ some more teachers (meet) _____ the increasing demand this year.
4. May I suggest (stop) _____ for a while to have a rest as my ankle appears (be) _____ sprained?
5. My father only allows me (borrow) _____ his car if I promise (bring) _____ it back with a full tank of petrol.
6. Don't be offended, but would you mind (leave) _____ me alone? I want (think) _____ over the problem.
7. They are very successful in (run) _____ a first class hotel, and they want_____ (expand) it next year by (add) _____ more rooms and a conference facility.
8. His sense of loyalty to his mother compelled him (tell) _____ the truth even though his brother had forced him (lie) _____.
9. It's best to avoid (talk) _____ to my father when he appears (be) _____ in a bad mood.
10. I wouldn't advise you (attend) _____ that university because their law department really isn't very good.

ENGLISH_ON_THE_GO_

LIVEWORKSHEETS