

Watch the video and complete the table.

What example does it provide to show what English as a lingua franca means?	3 examples of English being used as a lingua franca in international communication:	Which two languages have more native speakers than English?
What does it mean for a country to be in the "inner circle"?	What is common among the outer circle countries?	What is common among the expanding (third) circle countries?