

Complete the conversation using the future continuous or the future perfect. Use the words in parentheses.

A What do you think you'll _____ (do) a couple of years from now?

B Oh, by then I'll _____ (finish) my degree and will probably _____ (work) as an engineer. How about you? What will you _____ (do)?

A I'm not sure. I might _____ (travel) or something. I'll definitely _____ (graduate) by that time, but I probably _____ (not find) a job!

Complete the chart with the jobs from the box. There is one extra job. Type the answer on the line.

civil engineer interpreter telemarketer

stockbroker tax adviser

translator contractor

pediatrician
Surgeon

Health care	Construction industry	Language specialists	Financial sector
1. _____ 2. _____	3. _____ 4. _____	5. _____ 6. _____	7. _____ 8. _____

How should you prepare for a job interview? Drag and drop the best expression to complete each sentence.

- What I'm saying
- Well, what I'd do first
- Or, another thing to do
- The main reason to do that
- The good thing about that
- The advantage of that
- What you need
- What I would do
- However, one thing you can do

A " _____ is to find out a lot about the organization. _____ is do some research. _____ is you can use what you learn in the interview."

B " _____ is a short course in preparing for interviews. _____ is that you'll feel more prepared during the actual interview. _____ is go through a practice interview with a friend. That can help a lot, too."

C " _____ is not worry about it too much. _____ is be careful about your appearance. Like, how you dress. _____ is so you look like you belong in the job."

:harmon hall

LIVEWORKSHEETS