IDIOMS: THE MEDIA

A) Match the idioms with their explanations.

1. The royal wedding was front-page news for one week. ☐
2. He's turned into a real couch potato since he subscribed to the sports channel. ☐
3. He's a suspect because he was found on the spot of the crime. ☐
4. He hit the headlines immediately after the murder. ☐
5. Many funny things happen when reporters are on the air. ☐

☐ Be broadcast at a particular time.

☐ Be in the exact place where something is happening.

☐ Be the most important item of news.

☐ Become famous by being reported in the news.

☐ A person who enjoys sitting in front of the TV for long periods of time.

B) Number the pictures according to the idiom they represent.

☐

☐

☐

☐

☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS