

IDIOMS: THE MEDIA

A) Match the idioms with their explanations.

| | | |
|---|--------------------------|--|
| 1. The royal wedding was front-page news for one week. | <input type="checkbox"/> | Be broadcast at a particular time. |
| 2. He's turned into a real couch potato since he subscribed to the sports channel. | <input type="checkbox"/> | Be in the exact place where something is happening. |
| 3. He's a suspect because he was found on the spot of the crime. | <input type="checkbox"/> | Be the most important item of news. |
| 4. He hit the headlines immediately after the murder. | <input type="checkbox"/> | Become famous by being reported in the news. |
| 5. Many funny things happen when reporters are on the air . | <input type="checkbox"/> | A person who enjoys sitting in front of the TV for long periods of time. |

B) Number the pictures according to the idiom they represent.

