How long have you been doing that?
About three years?

Well, I've been going to a pottery class
since September.

So far I've made eight vases and two bowls. Here's something I just made.

I haven't seen you in ages! What have you been up to?

Working. That's pretty much it. I haven't been out in months. What about you?

- 1 Bob So, what have you been doing since I saw you last?
- Lois
- Bob Same here. I've been working late every night. Uh . . . do you have time to grab a bite to eat?

- 2 Maya
- Gail Well, you won't believe it, but I've been seeing a guy from work. We've gone out three or four times now, so I guess it's getting serious.

- 3 Will What have you been up to recently? I haven't seen you at the gym.
- Diane
- Will Pottery . . . really! So, what kind of things do you make?
- Diane

- 4 Luis Hey, good to see you. I see you're still doing karate.
- Ahmad Oh, yeah.
- Luis
- Ahmad Actually, for nine years now.
- Luis Wow! That's impressive.
