

UNIT 2 "Countries, Cultures and Customs"

Reading "Festivals Around the World"

Chapter 6: Thank You

1. Drag the correct word in the correct picture.

CROWN

HARVEST

PUMPKIN PIE

TURKEY

WHEAT

WREATH

2. Choose the odd one out.

Poland	South Korea	USA	November	Italy
Fall	wheat	winter	spring	summer
Fruit	pumpkin	family	turkey	cake
Chuseok	November	September	October	August
Dance	eat	sing	wear	girl

3. Join with arrow the sentence with the correct country.

People eat turkey and pumpkin pie.

Italy

People eat rice cakes.

South Korea

People dance with wreaths.

Poland

Girl wear crowns of flowers.

USA

4. Choose the correct answer.

When do people pick the fruit?

Who cuts the crops?

Which country has a festival called Chuseok?

When is Chuseok?

What do people do at Chuseok?

Which countries have a festival called Thanksgiving?

When is Thanksgiving in the USA?

Chapter 7: Birthdays

1. Drag the word in the correct sentence.

Birds sometimes tree
birthday statues teacher

- Christmas is the _____ of Jesus Christ.
- At Christmas many people have a Christmas _____ in their homes.
- Guru Nanak was a great _____.
- Vesak Day is _____ called Buddha's Birthday.
- On Vesak Day, Buddhists decorate _____ of Gotama Buddha.
- Thousands of _____ fly into the sky on Vesak Day.

2. Join with arrows the sentences.

Guru Nanak's Birthday

Buddhist

Vesak Day

Muslim

Christmas

Sikh

Eid

Christian

3. Choose the correct order of the sentence.

a/Guru/Nanak/great/teacher./was

His/in/is/birthday/November.

Golden/Temple./to/the/Some/people/go is/temple/India./This/in lamps/temple./There/are/the/at/lots/of

Chapter 8: Midsummer

1. Drag the word in the correct picture.

BONFIRE

LAKE

FLOWERS

LEAVES

POLE

RIVER

2. Match

The days are long	Midsummer.
The longest day is called	in Finland.
This is a big festival in	in summer.
People make big	pretty crowns.
It doesn't get dark	Sweden.
In Russia, girls make	bonfires.

3. True or False

In Europe, the days are short in June.
In Europe, people have bonfires at Midsummer.
In Russia, girls throw their crowns into the streets.
In Finland, it never gets dark at Midsummer.
In Sweden, people dance around a big pole.

TRUE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE
TRUE	FALSE