Life on a farm

Do you hate life in the city? Do you think life on a farm is great, easy and quiet? Well, think again. Life on a farm is great, but it's also very difficult!

Magda and Pierre live on a farm in France with their parents. Every day all the family wake up very early in the morning and they feed the animals and collect the milk and eggs. Then Magda and Pierre brush the horses. Their dad takes the sheep to the field. After that they go to school. When they come back, they help their parents plant vegetables and pick fruit.

After lunch, they do their homework for the next day and then Pierre moves the sheep back to the farm and Magda feeds the ducks. A lot of people visit their farm because they love the animals there and they want to buy fresh fruit and vegetables. Everyone loves their old goat, Bud. Bud doesn't play or run very much now, but he loves people and people love him.

2 Read the text and decide which answer (a, b or c) best fits each gap.

A I'm on holiday now with my sister. We're on a farm and it's great! We get up very early every morning and we help on the farm. There are lots of animals here! We feed the ducklings and their mum and then we milk the cows. We usually have breakfast after that and then we help with other jobs on the farm.

B In the evenings we're very tired, but there isn't a TV here on the farm, so we don't watch TV! We play games or talk to the farmer and his wife.

C I want to go to see the lambs now.

Bye for now!

Love,

Sonya

D Hi Pam!

How are you? I hope you're well. Are you at home or on holiday?

E

It's hard work, but it's great fun. We always have lunch at half past one and then we relax for some time. In the afternoon, we usually play with the baby animals. The puppies and the kittens are very cute and funny! Sometimes, I ride a horse. Her name is Neda. My sister often goes for a walk with the farm dog, Bob!
