Name: _____ HOMEWORK Points: _____

Unit 2A: Let's Eat

GRAMMAR

A Write the comparative form of the adjectives.

1. cold _____
2. friendly _____
3. good _____
4. nice _____
5. hard _____
6. easy _____

B Write sentences with the comparative form of these adjectives. Use your own ideas.

1. phone calls / texts / nice Phone calls are nicer than texts.
2. cats / dogs / friendly _____
3. cooking / eating out / expensive _____
4. Mexico City / Tokyo / interesting _____
5. fried chicken / french fries / oily _____
6. cookies / donuts / sweet _____
7. cleaning the house / cooking / hard _____
8. sharks / snakes / dangerous _____
9. history class / math class / hard _____
10. (your idea) _____

C Complete the paragraph with the correct comparative form of the adjectives provided.

My mother is a great cook. She's (1.) _____ (good) at cooking than anyone in my family. The food she prepares is always (2.) _____ (tasty) than anything you can get at a restaurant. One of my favorite things she makes is baked chicken. It's (3.) _____ (juicy) than the chicken I make, and it's (4.) _____ (spicy) than you might expect! She also bakes a great chocolate cake. Her recipe is (5.) _____ (unusual) than one you would find in a cookbook. She puts coffee in the cake batter. But, don't worry! The cake is not bitter. It's (6.) _____ (sweet) and (7.) _____ (delicious) than anything from the bakery. I think my mom should open her own restaurant, but she thinks that's an even (8.) _____ (crazy) idea than putting coffee in a cake!

LIVEWORKSHEETS