

AS...AS Vs. NOT AS...AS TOO Vs. ENOUGH

1) USE AS... AS OR NOT AS... AS AND THE ADJECTIVES PROVIDED.

1. This pear is                      that one. (hard)
2. This horse is                      that. (strong).
3. These trousers are                      those. (expensive)
4. She is                      she looks. (not/old)
5. The town centre was                      usual. (not/crowded)
6. I'm sorry I'm late. I got here                      I could. (fast)
7. I'm quite tall, but you're taller. I'm                      you. (tall)
8. Rome is                      Athens. It was built earlier. (not/old)
9. My room is bigger than yours. Your room is                      mine. (not/big)
10. I'm                      he is. He's much shorter than me. (not/short)
11. My car's                      yours. You can drive faster. (not/fast)
12. I'm                      my sister. We were both born in 1984. (old)
13. She sings                      her sister. They are really good. (well)
14. This curtain is                      the other. (long)
15. These scales are                      those. (precise)
16. She's                      her brother. She's much slimmer. (not/fat)
17. The film was                      I expected. I really enjoyed it. (interesting)
18. The film was                      I expected. I really disliked it. (not/interesting)
19. This exercise is                      the other one. It's very simple. (easy)
20. This exercise is                      the other one. It's too difficult. (not/easy)
21. His DVD player was                      mine. We paid the same price. (cheap)
22. She's                      her brother. He's really intelligent. (not/smart)
23. The blue car is                      the red car. (not/fast)
24. Peter's house is                      Fred's. (not/new)
25. The violin is                      cello. (not/low)

2) COMPLETE WITH TOO, ENOUGH OR NOT ENOUGH.

1. I can't see anything. It's (dark).
2. What a terrible noise! It's (loud).
3. I can't buy this piece of jewellery. It's (expensive).
4. Peter can't make this calculation. He's (intelligent).
5. They won't speak.. They are (shy).
6. He's 1.37m. He is (tall) to play as a goalkeeper.
7. It's 45°C. It's (hot) to play outside.
8. Peter may win an Oscar as an actor. He's (good).
9. I can't eat this biscuit. It's (hard).
10. This tea is (sweet). I don't need any more sugar.
11. David is scrawny. He can't be Santa Claus, because he's (fat).
12. John can't lift that box. He's (strong).
13. John can't lift that box. He's (weak).
14. John can lift that box. He's (strong).
15. Little Jacob can't read. He's (old).
16. Pam won't win the race. She's (fast).
17. Chris doesn't want to work. She's (lazy).
18. Geraldine can't go out with you. She's (young) to go to discos.
19. Susan is disappointed. She's (satisfied) with the presents she got.
20. Bob is (tall) to reach the highest shelf, so you needn't help him.