

QUESTION? time Past Simple

Except TO BE, CAN and some other verbs, you need HELP to make a question.

In the Present tense, you use DO or DOES.

Affirmative:

YOU

LIKE

the film.

Question:

DO

YOU

LIKE

the film?

In the Past tense, you use DID (in all the persons, singular and plural!)

Affirmative:

YOU

LIKED

the film.

Question:

DID

YOU

LIKE

the film?

 Write DO, DOES or DID to make the sentence a QUESTION.

- 1 We play football every Friday. _____ you play football every Friday?
- 2 I went to school yesterday. _____ you go to school yesterday?
- 3 He wrote me a letter last week. _____ he write me a letter last week?
- 4 Cats love milk. _____ cats love milk?
- 5 My sister loves horses. _____ my sister love horses?
- 6 I studied maths all the afternoon. _____ you study maths all the afternoon?
- 7 We travelled to Rome last summer. _____ you travel to Rome last summer?
- 8 The car stopped at the red light. _____ the car stop at the red light?
- 9 I speak English. _____ you speak English?
- 10 I helped my mum with the shopping bags. _____ you help your mum?

Transform the Present tense in the Past tense. Present ►► Past

Do you like broccoli now?

Did you like broccoli some years ago?

Do you speak English now?

two years ago?

Do you go to school today?

yesterday?

Do you play tennis today?

yesterday?

Do you like pizza now?

two years ago?

Do you go by car today?

yesterday?

Do you have a dog now?

two years ago?

Do you know the alphabet now?

two years ago?

Does it snow in May?

last January?

Do you understand it now?

before?

Do you have many tests this year?

last year?

