

The Stranger

Chapters 11-12

Number these events.

- Mr. Riseman left his briefcase in the Special Orders Room.
- Anna expected to hear some news about Arthur Riseman.
- Anna read the newspaper on her way back to London.
- Anna was feeling miserable and she looked ill.
- Arthur Riseman denied having a briefcase.
- Once there, she confirmed that the letters 'I.C.S.' stood for the name of a company.
- Anna couldn't work out the meaning of the letters on Mr. Riseman's briefcase.
- Arthur Riseman was likely to become the Chairman of 'I.C.S.'
- Arthur Riseman came to The Corner Shop.
- Anna phoned 'I.C.S.' and learnt Mr. Riseman was the Vice Chairman of the company.
- Anna offered Mr. Riseman some home-made bread.
- Anna left a note for Dave saying she was going to Lidney, but in fact she went to London.
- Mr. Riseman wasn't among the victims because he had missed the plane.
- Anna told Arthur Riseman he could carry the bread in his briefcase.
- Six people from 'I.C.S.' had died in a plane crash.
- Arthur Riseman reacted aggressively to Anna's words.
- Anna knew that Mr. Riseman was lying about his job.
- Arthur Riseman was at a meeting and was then flying to Switzerland.