

THEORY	EXERCISES	TRANSLATION
TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, TOO - USES
-I have too much work → Quantifiers express 'more than is good' -My boss talks too much → Too much + uncountable noun -I eat too many sweets → Too many + countable noun -I'm too tired (too + an adjective) → Too + an adjective I'm too much tired	Select the correct form: She has walked too much far / too far, she's tired 1. He doesn't eat meat enough/enough meat. 2. How many/much money have brought? 3. She's too quiet/too much quiet	Ha caminado demasiado, está cansada 1. No come suficiente carne 2. ¿Cuánto dinero ha traído? 3. Está demasiado callada
(NOT) ENOUGH- USES
-I don't drink enough water → Enough before a noun means 'all that is necessary' -He doesn't sleep enough → Enough after a verb with no object -It isn't big enough for a family → Enough after an adjective/adverb family
		MÉTODO ISO - JMB

THEORY	EXERCISES	TRANSLATION
TOO MUCH, TOO MANY, TOO - USES
-I have too much work	Quantifiers express 'more than is good'
-My boss talks too much	Too much + uncountable noun
-I eat too many sweets	Too many + countable noun
-I'm too tired (too + an adjective)	Too + an adjective I'm too -much-tired
(NOT) ENOUGH- USES
-I don't drink enough water	Enough before a noun means 'all that is necessary'
-He doesn't sleep enough	Enough after a verb with no object
-It isn't big enough for a family	Enough after an adjective/adverb
	Complete the sentences with too, too much, too many or enough:
	There are too many students in that class	Hay demasiados alumnos en esa clase
	1. They told me my dog is _____ fat	1. Me han dicho que mi perro está demasiado gordo
	2. There were _____ foreigners at the conference	2. Había demasiados extranjeros en la conferencia
	3. I usually drink _____ tea	3. Suelo beber demasiado té
	4. Do you have _____ paper in your folder?	4. ¿Tienes suficiente papel en tu carpeta?

MÉTODO ISO - JMB