Extreme Adjectives in English

QUIZ 1

1. The comedy was _____! I laughed so hard I was almost crying.

A essential
B fascinating
C hilarious

2. The kitchen was _____ by the time she finished cleaning it.

A furious
B delited
C spotless

3. These _____ ruins were built by the Mayans thousands of years ago.

A ancient
B filthy
C packed

4. The teacher said I was a _____ student and got the best marks.

A huge
B gorgeous
C wonderful

5. My brother was _____ when I broke his brand-new cell phone.

A awful
B furious
C starving

6. The first time I had to speak at a big conference, I was _____ - my hands were actually shaking!

A packed
B terrified
C terrible

7. The Mexican players looked _____ at the end of the match.

A exhausted
B filthy
C tiny

8. That dress is _____ - I can't believe it's considered "fashionable"!

A awful
B freezing
C hilarious

9. The book was _____. I've read it twice.

A fascinating

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B furious

C delighted

10. I didn't have breakfast this morning, so I am _____now.

A enormous

B fascinating

C starving

QUIZ 2: ADVERBS WITH EXTREME ADJECTIVES – VERY / REALLY / QUITE / ABSOLUTELY / TOTALLY / COMPLETELY

1. That painting is very gorgeous - the artist has real talent.

A Correct

B Incorrect

2. These books are really ancient - they were written two hundred years ago.

A Correct

B Incorrect

3. The street was very packed during the weekend.

A Correct

B Incorrect

4. It's absolutely freezing outside.

A Correct

B Incorrect

5. It's quite hot in here; could you open the window?

A Correct

B Incorrect

6. This project is very difficult – it could take a long time.

A Correct

B Incorrect

7. He lost his job and his car was stolen in the same week. Wow, that's really awful.

A Correct

B Incorrect

8. It's very essential that you bring all the necessary documents to your visa interview.

A Correct

B Incorrect

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. Your essay was very perfect - there was only one small punctuation error.

A Correct

B Incorrect

10. My new apartment is absolutely tiny; there isn't enough room for all my furniture.

A Correct

B Incorrect

Complete the sentences using the extreme adjectives:

Freezing, boiling, awful, wonderful, huge, packed, starving, exhausted, furious, filthy, terrified

- The trains during rush-hour in Tokyo are _____. There are people everywhere.
- The world's biggest casino opened in Las Vegas - it's _____. It's twice the size of the previous world's biggest.
- I was _____ when I saw that someone had damaged my car and had driven away.
- After running the marathon she felt _____. She just wanted to lay down.
- My hometown is _____ in the winter, so remember to bring a big coat.
- You need to clean your bedroom. I've never seen such a dirty room. It is _____ in here.
- I'm _____ because I didn't eat breakfast and I was too busy to eat lunch.
- Turn on the air-con it is _____ in here. I hate summer! It is too hot!
- People left the cinema before the film ended because it was _____. It's the worst film I've ever seen.
- My wife is _____ of birds. I'm not scared of anything.
- You must climb the mountain. The view from the top is _____!

LIVEWORKSHEETS