The Ikebana

Flower lovers are invited to attend an ikenobo ikebana exhibition at the Ipoh YMCA (0) in the weekend. The flowers will be (9) arrange by the Ipoh Ikenobo Chapter students. (10) Proceed from the sale of the flower arrangements will go to the Perak Thalassaemia Society.

Rokkakudo Temple is (11) a birthplace of ikebana. The word ikenobo is derived from ike which means 'a pond' (12) for bo means 'a priest's hut'. Thus, ikenobo means 'the priest's hut next to a pond'.

The ikenobo ikebana technique (13) was promoted and developed by organizing Ikenobo Chapters all over the world. The Ikenobo Chapter in Taiwan organizes the Japan-Taiwan Ikenobo Ikebana exhibition. Annual exhibitions are held in Tokyo, Kyoto and other larger cities in Japan, (14) attracted participants worldwide. Participants can observe first-hand the ikebana of other disciples, (15) but also share ideas and experiences.

In ikebana, a new world is created even by using a simple tokonoma (alcove) decorated (16) by flowers and a hanging scroll. This, in turn, brings forth a new beauty in the surrounding environment.
