

(_____)	a seat on a train, aircraft, or other vehicle, especially a public one, that is next to a window
(_____)	a card that a passenger must have in order to be allowed to get on an aircraft or a ship
(_____)	a chair on a train, aircraft or other vehicle that is positioned in the middle
(_____)	an area in a place where people can sit while waiting, as in an airport or a doctor's office
(_____)	to make certain that passports is correct or suitable by examining quickly:
(_____)	to get objects examined by an official person to enter a country
(_____)	a seat on a train, aircraft or other vehicle that is next to the corridor
(_____)	a long, level piece of ground with a specially prepared smooth, hard surface on which aircraft take off and land
(_____)	a part of a fence or outside wall that is fixed at one side and opens and closes like a door, usually made of metal or wooden strips
(_____)	enter an aircraft
(_____)	If an aircraft, bird, or insect takes off, it leaves the ground and begins to fly
(_____)	to arrange to have a seat at a particular time in the future in an aircraft
(_____)	to give your bags to airport employees to be put on a plane for you, rather than carrying them on and off the plane yourself