

LISTENING

Listen to a TV critic talking about a television programme. Choose the correct answers.

1.- Janet is going to review a TV programme called...

- |                  |                       |
|------------------|-----------------------|
| a) Space Travel. | c) Robot Lives.       |
| b) Future World. | d) Weekend TV Review. |

2.- The programme predicted that ..... will become more important in the future.

- |                    |                                    |
|--------------------|------------------------------------|
| a) food technology | c) robot and computer technologies |
| b) space travel    | d) politics                        |

3.- Robot technology is far advanced in .....

- |            |             |
|------------|-------------|
| a) Europe. | c) America. |
| b) China.  | d) Japan.   |

4.- Janet thinks that in the future .....

- |                                      |  |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| a) we'll have robots in our houses.  | c) there will be smart technology in our houses. |
| b) robots will do all the housework. | d) robots will drive our cars.                   |

5.- She thinks that in the future, if we need more food .....

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| a) our fridges will tell us when to buy it. | c) we won't buy it from shops.             |
| b) our robots will cook it for us.          | d) we'll buy it from 'smart' supermarkets. |

6.- One day, scientists will be able to create .....

- |                                      |                                      |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| a) robots that look like Will Smith. | c) machines that make robots.        |
| b) robots that can think and feel.   | d) robots that do all the housework. |