Collocations: Make or do? Choose the correct option.

a) I didn't do / make my classwork yesterday so my teacher is really annoyed.

b) Believe me, you wouldn't do / make so many spelling mistakes if you read more!

c) My English is improving! I have done / made great progress.

d) She didn't do / make her best in the exam and she knew it.

e) He did / made his homework, but forgot to bring it to school.

f) There are so many decisions to do / make that I don't know where to start.

g) Did you do / make a reservation for tonight?

h) You have to do / make some changes here.

i) Can you do / make me a favour, please?

j) He is a little boy. He can't do / make any damage.

k) Let's do / make an experiment and see the results.

Prepositions: Choose the correct option.

a) My parents are holidaying on / in the west coast.

b) I must be the happiest person on / in earth!

c) The church is close to / at the school.

d) Tickets must be purchased two weeks in / for advance.

e) When all the passengers were on / at board, the train departed.

f) He went to New York on / by plane.

g) Our school is in / on the east of Buenos Aires.

h) The restaurant is particularly popular with / to young people.

i) The majority of people interviewed prefer TV to / at radio.

j) I don't know with / for certain, but I think she lives in Miami.

k) She moved to London in / on the hope of finding a new job.

LIVEWORKSHEETS