Zoo escape shocks residents

Residents in the Blackwood area complained last night that they (1) ....B..... warned about the escape of a dangerous snake. The snake, a python, is three metres long and can kill pets. 'I heard about it on the radio,' said Mrs Agnes Bird.

'I (2) ..... lock my dog in the kitchen this morning, because I thought the snake (3) ..... attacked it. Now I am not sure what I (4) ..... do.'

The snake, called Lulu, disappeared from Blackwood Zoo some time on Thursday. 'It (5) ..... slipped out of its cage while the door was open,' said zoo director Basil Hart. 'There is no other way it (6) ..... got out. It (7) ..... been scared by a sudden loud noise, or perhaps it just felt like a change.' Mr Hart said that people (8) ..... been alarmed. 'There (9) ..... been some misunderstanding, I suppose, when we spoke to the local radio station about this,' he went on. 'In fact, we found Lulu not long after we noticed she was missing. We (10) ..... to look far. She was asleep under a bush. So you see, you should never believe everything you hear on the radio.'
