

Refresh Your Memory!

Grammar • Review

1 Make sentences. Use reported speech.

- 1 "I am from Venice, Italy." (She said ...)
She said she was from Venice, Italy.
- 2 "I loved the carnival last year." (She told me ...)
- 3 "I've never seen such great fireworks." (She said ...)
- 4 "I'll send you some photos." (She told me ...)
- 5 "We're going to invite a lot of friends next year." (She said ...)
- 6 I hope you can come, too." (She told me ...)

2 Complete the text with the correct form of these verbs.

buy	cook	go	not complain
not give	play	ride

In the morning, Mom asked me ¹ to buy some pizzas on the way home from school. But after school, my friend asked me ² soccer with him, and I forgot about the pizzas. When I got home, Mom asked me ³ my bike to the store, but I told her ⁴ me all the jobs. She got angry and told me ⁵ to my room. Later, I said that I was hungry and asked her ⁶ something, but she told me ⁷ It's nine o'clock, and I haven't eaten anything since lunch!

3 Make reported questions.

- 1 "When are the guests arriving?" he asked.
He asked when the guests were arriving.
- 2 "Why did Sam get here late?" he asked.
- 3 "Did he bring any food?" we asked.
- 4 "Do I have to wear a tie?" he asked.
- 5 "Can I choose the music?" she asked.
- 6 "What time are we going to leave?" I asked.

4 Put the text into reported speech.

"Where are you, Sophie?" asked Connor.
Connor asked Sophie where she was.
"Hurry up!" he told her. "The prom is starting soon."
"I haven't done my hair," said Sophie. Then she asked, "Are my high heels in the hall?"
Connor looked. "They aren't here," he said, "and it's already six fifteen."
"Go without me," said Sophie. "I'll come later."
"Don't worry," said Connor. "I'm happy to wait."