

4 Complete the sentences with better, the best, worse or the worst.

- Do you want a pizza?
- Yes, but not from here. The pizzas in here are <sup>1</sup> the worst in the world.
- They're <sup>2</sup> _____ than in Pizza Power.
- Oh yes. I forgot that restaurant. You're right. Pizza Power is <sup>3</sup> _____ than this place.
- So where's <sup>4</sup> _____ place for pizzas?
- Pete's Pizzas. They're delicious!
- You look happy.
- Yes. My project was <sup>5</sup> _____ in the school.
- Really? Was it <sup>6</sup> _____ than Joe's?
- Yes, it was. I was surprised because my last project was much <sup>7</sup> _____ than his. He usually does very good projects but this was <sup>8</sup> _____ one he's done this year.