

3 Which text ... ?

Read the texts on page 17 of the Classbook. Write the correct number of the text in the space provided.

- | | | |
|---|--|----------------------|
| 1 | ... won the prize for best poem? | <input type="text"/> |
| 2 | ... won the prize for best fictional story? | <input type="text"/> |
| 3 | ... won the prize for best factual story? | <input type="text"/> |
| 4 | ... uses a lot of repeated words? | <input type="text"/> |
| 5 | ... has characters to help tell the story? | <input type="text"/> |
| 6 | ... uses speech marks to show someone is talking? | <input type="text"/> |
| 7 | ... clearly tells you what it is about at the beginning? | <input type="text"/> |
| 8 | ... has words that rhyme? | <input type="text"/> |

1 True or false?

Decide if the following statements are true or false by reading the competition entries in activity 2 on page 17 of the Classbook. Circle the answer.

- | | | | |
|---|---|----------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1 | Text 3 is called Eid Al Fitr. | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 2 | Zainab was the first to go through the door | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 3 | The first text is about celebrating Eid in Oman | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 4 | Vicki Gross is the author of the second text. | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 5 | A cat frightened the characters in the dream. | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 6 | You should rest on the seventh. | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 7 | There was a lot of furniture in the room. | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |
| 8 | She travelled to the south. | <input type="checkbox"/> t | <input type="checkbox"/> f |

2

Relative clauses.

The following texts have been taken from the articles in activity 1 and 3 on page 16 of the Classbook. Decide which ones are relative clauses about people and which ones are about things. Look at the example to help you.

1

Officials announced that the new 'Writers Write' competition which aims to encourage students ...

thing

2

Prizes that are worth OR 100 for each category ...

3

Bruce Bixby, who has been the head judge for the past 15 years ...

4

... authors who wanted to win this year's Big Book Award.

5

... the offices of the event organisers that are located in Seeb ...

6

... The 'Young Writers' category which is for 8 to 12 year ...

3

An interview.

Fill in the missing words from the following interview by reading the 'Judges arrested' article in activity 3 on page 16 of the Classbook. Then listen to the tape to check your answers.

Interviewer: Good morning all you out there, this is Barry Bing live from 1. .
This morning I'm talking to
2. Malone from Sing Sing Jail, Good morning Minnie...

Minnie: Good morning Barry.

Interviewer: Minnie, you've recently been
3. . Can you tell us why?

Minnie: Well it's for bribery and corruption,
you know...for taking 4. .
But I'm not guilty.

Interviewer: Taking money for what?

Minnie: Some authors wanted to 5.
the Big Book Award, and I was one of the 6.

Interviewer: So did you take money?

Minnie: NO, I may have had a few lunches and dinners, but never any money.

Interviewer: Is that 7. ?

Minnie: Well Barry, I look at this way