

WILL, BE GOING TO, VERB + PREPOSITION

1. Match the questions to the answers.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| a. Is John going to sign the petition?            | He wants to go to Liverpool.                      |
| b. Are you going to join the march?               | I'll leave at the end of my 4 th year. |
| c. Are your parents going to make placards?       | He says he is.                                    |
| d. What are you going to do with your old laptop? | Yes, I am. Definitely!                            |
| e. Where's Ted going to study journalism?         | I'll probably give it to my cousin.               |
| f. When are you going to leave school?            | Yes, they're going to make six.                   |

2. Put the words in the correct order.

- birthday / for / going / What / do / are / to / you / your / ?
- present / What's / to / next / Tamara / going / ?
- teacher / going / exams / When's / the / to / correct / the / ?
- collection / Where / make / are / they / to / a / going / ?
- invite / Who / you / to / for / are / the / going / weekend / ?

3. Choose the correct option.

- We're going to the demonstration because we don't agree with / agree against the new law.
- I really believe in / care about the environment.
- We haven't decided on / worried about a good slogan yet.
- Ana is hoping for / knows about her interview to go well.
- We think the factory should apologise for / protest against causing pollution.
- I'm joining the sit-in because I disapprove of / decide on the new uniforms.