Did you Know?

Read about duty-free items and answer the questions.

Did you know:

- Most airports sell duty-free items, which are items that are not taxed by the government.
- Duty-free items are usually rare or luxury items.
- Common duty-free items include designer perfume and make-up, chocolates, alcohol and tobacco.

Do you buy duty-free items when you go to the airport? Why or why not?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Idiom

Talk about this idiom with your teacher and classmates and answer the question.

Red-eye flight = an overnight flight

Example: Maria took a red-eye flight, so that she could attend a morning meeting.

Have you ever taken a red-eye flight? Describe the experience.

Debate

What is the difference between these two flights? Which would you rather take? Take a side and debate with class.

Domestic flight

Example: The distances are shorter.

International flight

Example: The planes are bigger.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Culture Corner

Read the paragraph about airport culture and discuss.

Many airlines have airport lounges for special travelers. Here, passengers can relax comfortably between flights. Most airport lounges offer free drinks, snacks, and Wi-Fi. Some even offer a gym, showers, massages and an area for children to play.

- Is there an airport lounge in the airport closest to you?
- Who owns it? Who uses the airport lounge?
- Have you ever used an airport lounge? Tell the class about it.
