

Jan: Hi, Steve!

Steve: Hi, Jan. I'm going to go to London on the train.
Come with me!

Jan: But it's cheaper by bus.

Steve: I've got a student travel card. You can get cheap train tickets with it.

Jan: That sounds good. How much does it cost?

Steve: A card for six months is sixteen pounds.

Jan: So how do I get one?

Steve: You need some photographs - one for the card and one for the form.

Jan: Oh. There's a photo machine in the post office. It gives you four photos for three pounds.

Steve: So does the one in the library. But I went to a photographer's shop. It was cheaper.

Jan: I don't have to show my passport or my driving licence, do I?

Steve: That's right, Jan, you only need a letter from your college.

Jan: I'll ask my teacher for one.

Steve: And then you take everything to the tourist office,
by the travel agent's.

Jan: Great, next time you go to London, I'll come too!
