

The Princess and the Pea

1. The girl asked the prince if

- A. she could stay the night.
- B. he knew the way to town.
- C. her brother was there.
- D. his mother was home.

2. The girl slept

- A. like a baby.
- B. very badly.
- C. until noon.
- D. for ten hours.

3. What did the prince say to the girl in the morning?

- A. He said that she had snored loudly.
- B. He said that he knew her brother.
- C. He told her she was beautiful.
- D. He asked her how she had slept.

4. The prince decided to find out

- A. the girl's real name.
- B. if the girl was a real princess.
- C. who the girl's parents were.
- D. where the girl lived.

5. The prince gave _____ to the girl.

- A. a clean nightgown
- B. a cup of hot chocolate
- C. his spare slippers
- D. the rest of his dinner

6. The prince knew the girl must be a princess because only a princess

- A. would like his cold, dreary palace.
- B. would have felt the pea on her bed.
- C. could look so pretty in the morning.
- D. could like a prince as plain as he was.

7. When the girl went to bed, the prince

- A. wished her sweet dreams.
- B. listened outside her door.
- C. left her alone in the palace.
- D. rode off into the forest.

8. On top of the pea, the prince put

- A. a spoonful of chocolate.
- B. a big scoop of honey.
- C. thirty-five potatoes.
- D. twenty mattresses.

9. The prince asked the girl to marry him after she

- A. woke up in the morning.
- B. first knocked on his front door.
- C. said she had slept badly.
- D. told him she loved his palace.

10. The prince searched everywhere for

- A. a princess to marry.
- B. his lost dog.
- C. his lost crown.
- D. a good housekeeper.

11. When the girl knocked on the door, she

- A. was wearing a long white gown.
- B. looked like the prince's sister.
- C. looked sick and tired.
- D. was cold, wet and dirty.

12. The girl said she had slept badly because

- A. she felt as if a rock was under her back.
- B. the prince's snoring had kept her awake.
- C. the prince's dog had barked all night.
- D. she felt bad about leaving her sister.

13. The prince put a pea

- A. in the girl's porridge.
- B. on the bed.
- C. in the hot chocolate.
- D. on the chair.