A present simple for habits, facts and repeated actions
B present simple to describe what happens in a film or book
C present simple with stative verbs
D present continuous for changing situations
E present continuous with always for something that happens often and is annoying
F adverb after the verb to be
G adverbial phrase of frequency used at the end of a sentence

| A | B | C | D | E | F | G |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|

1 The main character, Ethan, goes to the theatre and finds a stranger waiting for him.

.....

2 You're getting better at running all the time – well done!

.....

3 There are often people on the beach in the mornings.

.....

4 Madison's always playing computer games when he should be doing his homework.

.....

5 I sleep in at the weekends because I don't go to school.

.....

6 Jody doesn't have enough time to go riding every evening.

.....

7 It's such a lovely day, I feel like going for a run.

.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS