

Mass Romantic

Different types of Mass include:

- Missa Brevis – short mass
- Requiem Mass – mass for the dead

A typical mass has 5 main ('Ordinary') sections:

- Kyrie, eleison, Christe eleison – Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy
- Gloria in excelsis Deo – Glory to God in the highest
- Credo in unum deum – I believe in one God
- Sanctus, Hosanna, Benedictus – Holy, Hosanna, Blessed in he
- Agnus Dei – Lamb of God

In Requiem masses, the following texts can also be included:

- Requiem aeternam – eternal rest
- Lux Aeterna – eternal light
- Pie Jesu, Dona eis requiem – merciful Jesus, grant them rest
- Libera Me – sung at the burial site before internment
- In Paradisum – trad. Sung as body leaves the church. It means 'Into Paradise'
- Dies Irae – means 'Day of Wrath'

The Mass started in the Renaissance period, usually a cappella, but has continued throughout the musical periods from Baroque through to Twentieth Century, usually with orchestral accompaniment. Not all masses have been composed for church services-some were composed as concert pieces.

Romantic Orchestra

During the romantic period, the orchestra had become a great force due to its increasing size including the following:

Agnus Dei - Faure(1845-1924)

In seven movements, the work is scored for soprano and baritone soloists, mixed choir, orchestra and organ. Different from typical Requiem settings, the full sequence Dies irae is omitted, replaced by its section Pie Jesu. The final movement In Paradisum is based on a text that is not part of the liturgy of the funeral mass but of the burial.
