

QUIZ: Introduction to webinar, eye contact, gesture and facial expression

1. Webinar allow a lot of people together without leaving an office, a place where can run a conference with no hidden expenses and unproductive time travel.
2. You should smile when on camera, so that they know, like and trust you for more engaging webinar.
3. Show fewer interesting graphics slides and never turn off your camera so that people can focus more on your slides.
4. Multiples voices are more interesting, leverage your voice, changing your volume, vary your voice to keep people engaged.
5. Look directly at the screen or laptop keyboard every time you speak to look better in webinar video recording.
6. Avoid insincere gestures by involving the entire body as much as possible in the movement and matching facial expression to it.