Superstitions

My friend told me: Do not put your bag down on the floor... your money will go away... I had never heard that before. He is from Chile and they believe if you put your purse or bag on the floor your money will disappear.

There are lots of superstitions from around the world. For example, it is believed that if someone knocks on wood, something he is talking about won't happen to him. A second example is that people never should toast with water because it is said that it will bring bad luck. Another is that we never should sit at the corner of the table because it is bad luck, apparently if we do it, we will never get married... but what is good luck is to see yellow butterflies because they will bring new clothes. Do you know superstitions about mirrors, cats, or birds? Do you know about a superstition in Ecuador?

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen! In our program today, we are going to discuss about the sports that are practiced in our country.

When we talk about sports, soccer is the first one to come to our minds and we could say that it is the most practiced sport in our parks, schools, and even on the streets.

We have seen lately that some other sports that were not that common before are being practiced overall in big cities. They are rugby, American football, baseball, cycling, martial arts, and surfing.

Despite the new trends, there are some sports that have been traditionally practiced such as basketball and volleyball which are very common in schools.
