

Each sentence has four underlined words or phrases. The four underlined parts of the sentence are marked (1),(2),(3), and (4). Identify the one underlined word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct. Then, mark the number you have chosen.

1. When have you been (1) in (2) London? — I don't know (3) exactly, I think nine or ten years ago. (4)
2. Could you give me some (1) sugar, please. I haven't got any (2) at home. — Sorry, I have only a few (3) left myself. (4)
3. In many familys (1) nowadays there is a problem of(2) misunderstanding between “fathers and sons”. This kind of problem is usually (3) hard to solve and the people seldom speak about (4) it.
4. The Boss never liked (1) Willie and on the day (2) of his appointment he made Willie to wait (3) for an hour till he let him in, though the question was just a simple one. (4)
5. She began to speak (1) softly with some (2) elegance that always attracted Mike's attention. She was so close that he really enjoyed seeing (3) her face. She seldom let him look after (4) her and always told him to turn away.
6. The problems in the family (1) were (2) great, but neither Father nor brothers didn't do (3) anything about them. (4)
7. We'll discuss (1) all the things tomorrow. You must be at the office at nine sharp. (2) If you will come (3) later, you won't be able to come (4) into the conference hall.
8. I don't want to speak to (1) you any longer! You must to study (2) well and get ready to go to the Institute. (3) And you just sit and play computer games. (4) Think of your future!
9. When Helen entered the room (1), her little sister played (2) with her kitten. She always played (3) with it when she had nothing to do. (4)
10. The dress Alice was wearing (1) at the party seemed to be too big. (2) And we all thought that it would be better for her to wear (3) something smallest. (4)