

JACK: What do you do in your free time, Ella?

ELLA: I love cooking.

JACK: Great! What sort of food do you cook?

ELLA: International food, like Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Italian...

JACK: That's interesting. How do you 1. _____?

ELLA: I get books from the library, and I watch programmes on television, and 2. _____ 3. _____ I did a Japanese cooking course at the college. And, of course, I study food technology at school.

JACK: Great! Tell me more about your Japanese cooking course.

ELLA: Well, the classes were every Monday, from 4. _____ until 5. _____. It lasted eight weeks. At the end, we had a big 6. _____.

We cooked lots of Japanese food and invited all our families and friends.

JACK: It sounds great. I'm doing a course at the college too, at the moment.

ELLA: Are you? What?

JACK: Music technology. I'm learning how to record music and set up microphones at concerts.

ELLA: That sounds interesting. Do you play an instrument?

JACK: Well, I played the violin when I was young. I was quite good, but I don't like 7. _____ music. I like rock music. You don't usually hear violins in rock music! I tried to learn the guitar, but I was terrible at it! I tried the drums too. I was quite good at that, but my parents didn't want me to play them. They said they're too 8. _____. So I decided to learn music technology. Then I can enjoy rock music without playing it!

ELLA: Good idea! Do you go to many concerts?

JACK: Oh yes, I love them. I went to six last year, and this year I already have 9. _____ for four concerts. I'm going to two this month! I'd like to see more, but they are expensive.

ELLA: yes, they are! Well, I have to 10. _____ out! Have a great time at your concerts.

JACK: Thanks bye !
