

Chapter 1 Part 5

Drag and Drop:

Progressive	Political power	property requirements	upper	John Locke	Harold Lasswell	white middle restrictions	Republicans	women		Political participation	enslaved	Democracy	consent	reforms

1. _____ argued that governments need the _____ of the people.
2. America's founders supported _____ and other _____ for voting and for holding office so as to limit political participation to the _____ and _____ classes, they didn't favor _____ as we now know it.
3. A key reason _____ gave the vote to formerly _____ people was to use their support to maintain Republican control in the defeated southern states.
4. The _____ had a similar motive during the women's suffrage because they believed _____ were more likely to support the _____ Progressives favored around government corruption, education, and the family.
5. _____ (a famous political scientist) once stated politics is the struggle over "who gets what, when, and how".
6. _____ - the influence over a government's leadership, organization, or politics.
7. _____ - can take the forms of voting, donating money, signing petitions, attending political meetings, tweeting and commenting online, sending emails to officials, lobbying legislators, working on a campaign, and participating in protest marches and even violent demonstrations.