

Review B

Vocabulary

Book genres

- 1 Complete the sentences with the book genres below. There are two extra genres.

autobiographies biographies comedy fantasy horror non-fiction romance science fiction

- Don't read a horror novel when you're alone at night!
- A biography tells the story of a special relationship between two people.
- Some authors write comedy about other famous people.
- Some famous people write their autobiographies because they want to tell their own personal stories.
- Science fiction novels tell stories about space, technology, or the future.
- Non-fiction books give information about different subjects, for example history or geography.

Symptoms

- 4 Read the doctor's comments. Write the correct symptoms.

Don't eat any food today.

1 s tomach a che

Your skin is very sore and red.

2 a r ash

Take this medicine and don't talk.

3 a s ore t ongue

39 degrees. You're very hot!

4 a t emperature

Don't listen to loud music for two days.

5 e ars

/4

Music genres

- 2 Complete the text with music genres.

In our house, we all like different kinds of music. My stepdad likes ¹ jazz and ² classical music. My mum likes ³ rock and ⁴ pop. My stepsister likes ⁵ dance music and ⁶ heavy metal, and my brother likes ⁷ reggae. And me? I like the best music of all, ⁸ hip hop!

/5

Grammar

Present simple and present continuous

- 5 Complete the conversation with the present simple or present continuous forms of the verbs in brackets.

Holly: Hi, Jay. ¹ What are you doing (what / you / do) in this part of town?

Jay: I ² am coming (come) here for band practice every week.

Holly: You're in a band? What kind of music is it?

Jay: We ³ are playing (play) reggae - I'm the singer.

Holly: Cool. ⁴ are you practising (you / practise) for a concert?

Jay: ⁵ Yes (yes / we). It's our first one on Saturday! Why don't you come?

Holly: Great, OK!

Jay: ⁶ are you going (you / go) to many concerts?

Holly: ⁷ I love (yes / I). I love concerts - and I ⁸ love (love) reggae!

Jay: Well, I must go. The others ⁹ are waiting (wait) for me.

Holly: OK. See you on Saturday!

/8

Parts of the body

- 3 Choose the correct words to complete the quiz.

- Your eyes and nose are on your face / feet / knee.
- There are 32 teeth / hands / inside your mouth.
- You can listen with your ears / face / nose.
- There are five fingers / feet / ears on each hand.
- Your hand is at the end of your arm / leg / skin.
- Your head / knee / stomach is in the middle of your leg.
- Your foot / hand / eye is at the end of your leg.
- When you eat, food goes into your back / skin / stomach.
- When it's hot, it's important to protect your skin / stomach / teeth.

/9

Prepositions of time

6 Complete the tips for writers with the times below.

a weekday night the evening
the middle of the night the morning the weekend

Do you want to write a novel? Read these helpful tips!

- Find time for your novel every day. You can write before school in ¹ the morning or after school in ² the evening. Some people prefer to work late at ³ the middle of the night.
- Always carry a notebook. Writers get brilliant ideas at different times and in different places: on ⁴ the weekend at school, at a party with friends at ⁵ the weekend, or even in bed in ⁶ the morning.

5/5

Adverbs and expressions of frequency

7 Rewrite the sentences so they have a similar meaning. Use the adverbs of frequency below.

hardly ever normally now and then often usually

- 'I listen to dance music every day.'
I normally listen to dance music.
- 'We listen to hip hop every day.'
Now and then
- 'They use their MP3 players four times a week.'
Often
- 'He listens to the radio twice a week.'
Now and then
- 'You go to concerts once a year.'
Hardly ever

4/4

Conjunctions

8 Read the article about Zara Larsson. Choose the correct words.

Do you know the songs: 'Uncover', 'Lush Life', 'but / or 'Never Forget You'? They're all by the singer-songwriter Zara Larsson. With lots of number one hits in different countries, Zara is very famous. However / Or she's only eighteen.

Zara is from Sweden and / but she is the winner of a Swedish talent show called Talang. Talent shows don't always produce famous singers, because / but Zara is a great songwriter, because / so she sells a lot of albums. She's active on social media, or / so millions of people read her posts on Twitter. And there's another reason why we all know Zara. She's famous because / however she works really hard!

6/6

Object pronouns

9 Complete the text with the object pronouns below.

it it them them us us you

Lots of ¹ us read books, but we read ² them in different ways. Some people like to hold a real book in their hand, but others prefer an e-book because they can read ³ it on a tablet which is easy to carry. Also, many people find e-books convenient because you can buy ⁴ them easily online. So which format is more popular? Surprisingly, results from a 2015 survey tell ⁵ us that when we really like a story, we want to read ⁶ it on paper! So when you want a new book, choose the format that is best for ⁷ you.

6/6

can for permission

10 Match the questions to the answers. Then complete a-f with the correct short answers.

- Can I go swimming? c
- Can I watch TV? a
- Can Sara have some chocolate? b
- Can the girls have a snack? d
- Can Tom listen to music on his headphones? e
- Can I have a shower? f

- a Yes, you can. There's a fantasy film on at 8 p.m.
b No, you can't. Do they want some pizza?
c No, you can't. You've got a cold!
d Yes, you can. Dad's in the bathroom.
e No, you can't. He's got earache!
f No, you can't. She's got toothache!

10/10

must

11 Read the descriptions of the illnesses. Write advice with must / mustn't and the prompts below.

brush / teeth drink / lots of water eat talk walk / on it

- I feel sick.
You mustn't eat.
- His leg hurts.
He must rest it.
- They've got toothache.
They must brush their teeth.
- She's got a temperature.
She must drink lots of water.
- I've got a sore throat.
I mustn't talk / walk / on it.

4/4