

1. Complete with the words in the box. There are extra options /10

MORE	WILL	SUDDENLY	WHILE	WERE	MOST	SINCE
FOR	THAN	ALTHOUGH	WAS	EVER	HOWEVER

Tom Faust, a seventeen-year-old boy, saved the life of an 83-year-old woman

1_____ he was driving home in Glenview on 10 July, 2021. Mrs. Ida Kurtz was driving across the railway lines when 2_____ her car broke down and stopped in the middle of the railway crossing. At the same time, two trains

3_____ racing towards the crossing from different directions. Tom ran to the woman's car and he tried to open the door and get into the car. 4_____ , the door was stuck and didn't open, so he unclipped the safety belt and pulled the woman through the window. Then he covered her with his body as the first train hit the car at more

5_____ 100 kph. A few seconds later, the second train also hit the car. "It was like a scene from a movie; a really terrifying experience!" Tom said later. 6_____ Mrs.

Kurtz spent two nights at the hospital, she was not hurt. "That boy is the 7 _____ courageous person I have 8_____ seen in my life!" she said later, still a bit shocked. She has been home 9_____ Wednesday morning and Tom has already visited her at her home. He thinks he 10_____ visit her soon again, but he is not sure. He has to study for a lot of exams this week!