COMPARTIVES AND SUPERLATIVES

COMPARATIVES

Read the following sentences and answer the questions.

Jhon is more interesting than Michael.

He's richer than me.

She drives more carefully than all my friends.

In each sentence, we're comparing two things or action. True False

We can use this structure just with adjectives. True False

With short words like "rich" we add _____ after the adjective/adverb. With long adjectives like "interesting" we add _____ before the adjective/adverb.

Match the adjectives with their irregular comparative forms.

Good	Worse
Bad	further
Far	better

Read the following sentences and answer the questions.

He's as tall as me.

He drives as carefully as his father does.

Choose the right option. With this structure we are:

Showing that two things are different.	Showing that two things are equal.

Write you own example:

SUPERLATIVES

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Read the following sentences and answer the questions.

PSY is now the most interesting Korean.

I am the happiest I've ever been.

We use this form of the adjective to talk about the extremes. True False

We can use superlative with "ever" and the present perfect. True False

To make the superlative, what word do we use before the adjective? _____

With short words like "happy" we add _____ after the adjective/adverb.

With long adjectives like "interesting" we add _____ before the adjective/adverb.

Match the adjectives with their irregular comparative forms.

Good	the worst
Bad	the furthest
Far	the best

LIVEWORKSHEETS