

EVERYDAY STORIES

Put the words in the appropriate spaces. Change the form of the verb, some of them may be used more than once.

arrive, bring, come, cook, eat, get up, go out, go, have, leave, like, listen, live, love, relax, stay, talk, visit

On Fridays I _____ home from BBC at about 2.00 in the afternoon and I just _____. On Friday evenings I don't _____, but sometimes a friend _____ for dinner. He or she _____ the wine and I _____ the meal. I _____ cooking! We _____ to music or we just _____. On Saturday mornings I _____ at 9.00 and I _____ shopping. Then in the evenings I sometimes _____ to the theater or the opera with a friend. I _____ opera! Then we _____ in my favorite Chinese restaurant. On Sunday ... Oh, on Sunday mornings I _____ in bed late, I don't _____ until 11.00! Sometimes in the afternoon I _____ my sister. She _____ in the country and _____ two children. I _____ playing with my niece and nephew, but I _____ early because I _____ to bed at 8.00 on Sunday evenings!

arrive, be, correct, finish, go, have, leave, live, start, visit, watch, work

Miriam lives in a house in Dallas with her husband and two children. She _____ in the mornings in a school. She _____ a teacher. She and her family _____ breakfast at 7.30 and _____ the house at 8. She _____ at school at 8.45 and _____ work at 9. At 11 o'clock she _____ coffee with her colleagues. She _____ work at 12.30. In the afternoon, she _____ shopping and _____ friends. In the evening, she _____ homework and _____ television.