Complete the crossword.

Down

1. Two leaders elected mainly from the patrician class.
2. A village that grew into an empire.
3. A culture that governed the City-State until the last king was driven away in 510 BC.
4. People who had no say in the government and belonged mainly to conquered groups.
5. He was the founder of the Republic.
6. Patricians who did several jobs, including judging in law cases.
7. A form of government in which people had a say in the way their affairs were run by means of their representatives.

Across

8. He was the last king of Rome.
9. He named a city after his own name.
10. Place of wise men who gave advice and made laws.
11. Roman young lady abused by a king's son.
12. Mythological god who abused a lady and became the father of semi-god twins.
13. A group of regular citizens who offered advice to the government.
14. The social group whose virtues lied in the ability to serve their husbands and had no voice in the affairs of the government.
15. Plebeian representatives after the plebs' strike in 494 BC.

LIVEWORKSHEETS