

Choose the correct form of the verbs in brackets
(Present Continuous or Future Simple)

Future Tenses

Remember!

Use Present Continuous if you want to speak about plans and arrangements.

Use Future Simple if you speak about predictions, decisions and offers.

1.- I don't have enough money to buy this T-shirt.

- No worries, I _____ (give) you some.

2. I _____ (visit) my grandma this week so I am not going to be at home.

3. _____ you _____ (open) the window. It is too hot there.

4. I think you _____ (be) a good teacher!

5. I am sure I _____ (pass) this exam with flying colours.

6. Don't forget! You _____ (see) a doctor this Friday.

7. We are having a birthday party this weekend. _____ you _____ (come)?

8. I can't decide which of these two computer games should I take.

Ok,

I _____ (take) this one!

9. I completely don't understand our home tasks.

_____ you _____ (explain) them to me, please?

10. Kids, you've been very naughty lately.

So you're punished and we _____ (not go) to the zoo today.